

Crew 1944

Earnable Awards

Pfc. Danny Gadzic

European-African-Middle Eastern Campaign Ribbon

- First created on November 6th, 1942
- Awarded to those who
 - Participated in any service performed in the European, African, or Middle Eastern theaters.
- Campaign stars are worn to denote participation in one or more campaign
- The arrowhead device is also worn to denote those who participated in airborne or amphibious landings.

In our unit the EAME ribbon is awarded to those who land under fire at D-Day Conneaut, Bronze arrowhead is authorised after a second landing

American Campaign Ribbon

- First created on November 6th, 1942
- Awarded to those who were
 - Permanently assigned outside the continental US
 - Permanently assigned members of vessel sailing ocean waters for 30 conseq. Days or 60 non conseq. days
 - In active combat against a enemy and was awarded a combat decoration.
 - Those inside the continental limits of the US for a aggregate period of 1 year.

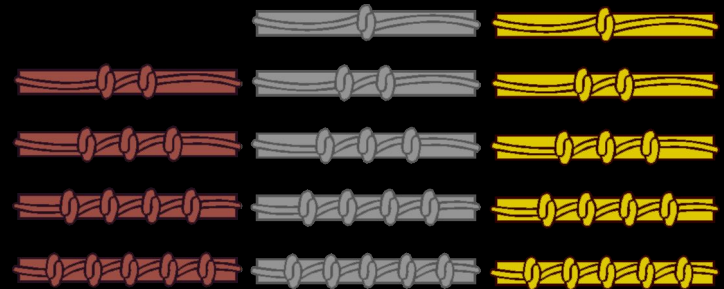

In our unit the ACR is awarded to those who attend 15 tactical events

Good Conduct Ribbon

- First created on June 28th, 1941
- Awarded to Individuals who
 - Display exemplary behavior, efficiency, and fidelity in active Federal Military service
- Second and all subsequent awards are denoted by clasps with loops over the ribbon
- Loops progress from two bronze signifying two awards, then at 6 awards, becomes silver, then 11 at gold

In our unit the Good Conduct Ribbon is awarded for gaining an additional 85 points from events after receiving the Ranger diamond and Pfc. rank, including recruiting points and job training points. To get second award, gain an additional 25 points, and 30 points for training presentations.

Eagle Scout Ribbon

- An informal military award
- Awarded to
 - Those who became Eagle Scouts
- Historically worn by some in WWII to recognise the completion of the BSA Eagle Scout Program on their Military Class A uniform.
- Handcrafted by recipients

In our unit those who have received the rank of Eagle Scout in BSA can wear the Eagle Scout ribbon on their Class A uniform

Expert Infantryman Badge

- First created on November, 1943
- Awarded to those who
 - Complete a number of prerequisites and pass a battery of graded tests on basic infantry skills
- Similar in appearance to the Combat Infantryman Badge, but the Expert Infantryman Badge is based on a test of proficiency, while the CIB is based in Participation in ground combat.

In our unit the EIB is awarded for a minimum one year of membership, participation in 5 tactical events, minimum proficiency on the manual of arms, along with basic field techniques and skills, along with weapons proficiency, and passing score on a written exam

Overseas Service Bar(s)

- WWII style finalised June 30th, 1944
- Awarded to those who
 - Served 6 months overseas in a theater of war
- Some soldiers in WWII who had previously served in WWI simultaneously wore their earlier overseas chevrons with their WWII awards

In our unit overseas bars are earned for every calendar year a member attends both Conneaut, and another major tactical. Maximum of 3 bars

World War I & World War II

3 Years WW II
2 Years WW I

Service Stripe(s)

- Concept dates back to 1782, when George Washington declared that enlisted men who had served for three years "with bravery, fidelity and good conduct" should wear "a narrow piece of white cloth, of angular form" on the left sleeve of the uniform coat.
- Awarded to those who
 - Serve 3 years in the service
- Prior to 1953, service stripes and overseas bars are worn on the left sleeve

In our unit the service stripe is awarded at the end of each 3rd year in the crew, if at least $\frac{2}{3}$ of events and meetings were attended.

"A Master Sgt from the 5th Inf Div in 1944. He has 10 Service stripes from 10 enlistments with 30 yrs of service. He was in WW1 for 1 year & 6 months. He was overseas in WW2 for 2 yrs & six months. "

Meritorious Unit Citation

- First created on January 1st, 1944
- Awarded to
 - units for exceptionally meritorious conduct in performance of outstanding services for at least six continuous months during a period of military operations against an armed enemy on or after January 1, 1944.
- Number inside wreath denotes number of times awarded

In our unit the MUC is earned after gaining 85 additional points following the earning of a good conduct award

Presidential Unit Citation

- First created on February 26th, 1942
- Awarded to
 - Units who displayed extraordinary heroism in combat
- All members of the unit may wear the decoration, whether or not they personally participated in the acts for which the unit was cited
- Oak leaves denote number of awards

In our unit the PUC is earned after you attend 3 monthly meetings, attend one overnight event, and acquire the correct uniform.

Marksmanship Awards

- Marksmanship awards first introduced in 1884
- Awarded to
 - awarded to personnel upon successful completion of a weapons qualification course
- Various clasps are available for marksmanship on different types of weapons, such as Rifle, Pistol, Carbine, Machinegun, and Mortar to name just a few

In our unit you can earn marksmanship awards for shooting the applicable weapon at the Crew range day once a year

Expert

Sharpshooter

Marksman

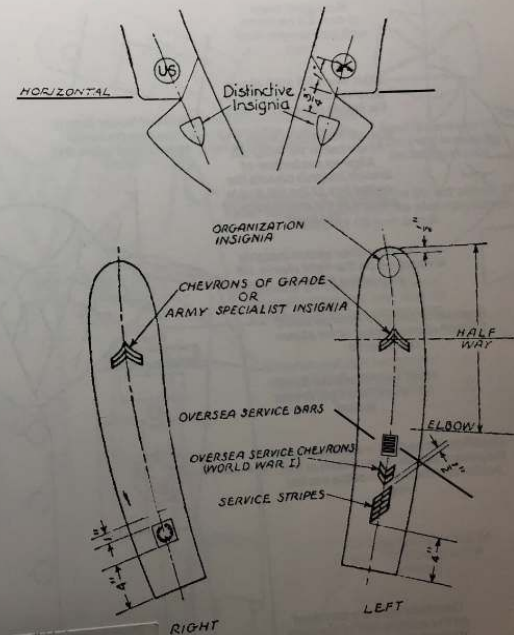

Weapon Clasp
(Rifle)

How Awards Are To Be Worn

Wear of Awards, Insignia and Accouterments on the Uniform (Male)

World War II Enlisted Dress Uniform

The End